

Professional Indemnity Insurance Proposal Form

Duty Of Disclosure

Your Duty Of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance. Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;

- that diminishes the lisk to be u
   that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business,
- ought to know;as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Claims Made Policy

This declaration is for a 'claims made and notified' policy of insurance. This means that the Insuring Clause responds to:

- claims first made against you during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period, provided that you were not aware at any time prior to the policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a claim may be made against him/her; and
- written notification of facts pursuant to Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. The facts that you may decide to notify, are those which might give rise to a claim against you. Such notification must be given as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of the facts and prior to the policy's period of cover has expired. If you give written notification of such facts the policy will respond even though a claim arising from those facts is made against you after the policy has expired. For your information, Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 is set out below:

"S40(3) Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim when made by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provided by the contract."

When the policy period expires, no new notification of facts can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim against you may have occurred during the policy period.

You will not be entitled to indemnity under your new policy in respect of any claim resulting from an act, error or omission occurring or committed by you prior to the retroactive date, where one is specified in the policy terms offered to you.

Subrogation

The policy contains a provision that has the effect of excluding or limited the insurer's liability in respect of a claim where the insured had foregone, excluded or limited a right of recovery or contribution.

Non-Renewable Policy

For the purposes of section 58 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, if a policy is issued, this policy is non-renewable and will expire at the conclusion of the policy period. Should the insured require coverage beyond the expiry of the policy period, the insured must complete a new proposal form and the insurer may provide a new contract, the terms and conditions of which will be negotiated at the time.

Guidelines to help you complete this Proposal Form

- 1. Failure to disclose all material information that is likely to influence the acceptance of the risk or the terms applied could invalidate the insurance. If you are in any doubt as to whether any information is material, it should be disclosed.
- 2. Where the space provided is insufficient for your replies, please provide these separately and attach to this Proposal Form.
- 3. Reference to Proposer in this Proposal Form means:
  - the Association and all subsidiaries; and
  - the officer bearers of the Association and all subsidiaries.
- 4. Reference to "North America" in this Proposal Form means the USA and Canada and their respective territories and possessions.

Privacy Statement

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide to advise about and assist with your insurance needs. We provide your information to insurance companies and agents that provide insurance quotes and offer insurance terms to you or the companies that deal with your insurance claim (such as loss assessors and claims administrators). Your information may be given to an overseas insurer (like Lloyd's of London) if we are seeking insurance terms from an overseas insurer, or to reinsurers who are located overseas. We will try to tell you where those companies are located at the time of advising you. We do not trade, rent or sell your information.

If you don't provide us with full information, we can't properly advise you, seek insurance terms for you, or assist with claims and you could breach your duty of disclosure.

For more information about how to access the personal information we hold about you and how to have the information corrected and how to complain if you think we have breached the privacy laws, you can access a copy of our Privacy Policy on our website www.quanta.com.au or alternatively contact our Privacy Officer on 02 9225 4111.

Your Duty Of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
   that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Claims Made Policy

This declaration is for a 'claims made and notified' policy of insurance. This means that the Insuring Clause responds to:

- claims first made against you during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period, provided that you were not aware at any time prior to the policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a claim may be made against him/her; and

Such notification must be given as soon as reasonably practicable after you become aware of the facts and prior to the policy's period of cover has expired. If you give written notification of such facts the policy will respond even though a claim arising from those facts is made against you after the policy has expired. For your information, Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 is set out below:

"S40(3) Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim when made by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provided by the contract."

When the policy period expires, no new notification of facts can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim against you may have occurred during the policy period.

You will not be entitled to indemnity under your new policy in respect of any claim resulting from an act, error or omission occurring or committed by you prior to the retroactive date, where one is specified in the policy terms offered to you.

Subrogation

The policy contains a provision that has the effect of excluding or limited the insurer's liability in respect of a claim where the insured had foregone, excluded or limited a right of recovery or contribution.
